

119. ARISE, FOR THE LIGHT COMETH!

99, 104, 120, 253.

1. One flock and a shep - herd dear! What a
 2. Watch - man, is the day a - far? See the
 3. Come Thou, Shep - herd, faith - ful One; May Thy
 4. See the dark clouds pass a - way With the glor - ious vis - i - ta - tion When Thy morn - ing light is gleam - ing; Light from light dis - pel the dark - ness! From Thee morn - ing light's ap - pear - ance. Thirst - ing

day will once ap - pear To re - store us
 the bright morn - ing star Through the dark - est and Thy lit - tle fold pray Err - ing the lambs have stran - gers kneel to pray By the fount of full sal - va - tion. Let His light wake clouds is stream - ing. Stran - gers blind - ed strayed so help - less. Lit - tle flock, now life in rev - 'rence, Till they see the thee from sleep; Je - sus will His prom - ise sigh for light; He shall make His prom - ise cease to weep; Je - sus will His prom - ise morn - ing light; Je - sus makes His prom - ise

keep! Je - sus will His prom - ise keep.
 right. He shall make His prom - ise right.
 keep. Je - sus will His prom - ise keep.
 right. Je - sus makes His prom - ise right.

5. See the graves asunder rent
 With their dead to life appearing!
 Angel of the covenant
 Now proclaims His day is nearing!
 Jesus calls: "Let there be light!"
 Jesus makes His promise right.
 Jesus makes His promise right.

6. O, behold that glorious day!
 Jesus Christ, our Sun and treasure, Giving light and wisdom still,
 Peace and joy in fullest measure!
 See the light! Awake from sleep!
 Jesus will His promise keep!
 Jesus will His promise keep!