

170. AT HOME 'TIS WELL!

1. At Home, 'tis well! There shall the pil - grim
 2. At Home, 'tis well! With God in close re -
 3. At Home, 'tis well! There palms of peace a -
 4. At Home, 'tis well! There God in ad - o -
 5. At Home, 'tis well! Then let us has - ten tar - ry, When tired and worn by sor - row, grief, and la - tion, The soul for - gets the sor - row it has bound - ing Are gent - ly cool - ing us, hot from the ra - tion A - dorns each vic - tor's brow with wreath of thith - er Through pain and death on to our home - land strife; In heav'n, when the hard race of earth - ly life borne, With pains o'er - come on that bright, gold - en morn, strife; O'er - come now are all pains of pil - grim life;

 gold. All who be - lieve and hope like those of old shore! On, bold - ly on! When this short life is o'er,

Is run, the long - borne load no more he'll car - ry.
 Re - joic - es in our God's sub - lime sal - va - tion.
 The cries of fear give way to psalms re - sound - ing.
 Sing praise and thanks in high - est ex - ul - ta - tion.
 New life will bloom for us and nev - er with - er.