

241. ENDURE AND BE STILL

1. Why griev-est, my soul, must thou suf - fer great pain? Trust
 2. Is thy lot to suf - fer in sick-ness and pain? Let
 3. Have thy friends for - sak - en and turned a - gainst thee? De -
 4. Must thou bear re-proach and de - ri - sion of men? Con - in your dear Je - sus, He'll strength - en a - gain. En - dure, noth - ing de - ceive you to mur - mur in pain. En - dure, pend up - on Je - sus, a true friend is He. En - dure, sid - er what God in His Word sai - eth then: En - dure, and be still, Be - liev - ing it is thy dear Sav - iour's good will.

 and be still, Be - liev - ing it is thy dear Sav - iour's good will.
 and be still, Be - liev - ing it is thy dear Sav - iour's good will.
 and be still, Be - liev - ing it is thy dear Sav - iour's good will.

5. Though shadows of death should encompass thee here,
 The sure hand of God is thy shelter from fear.
 :: Endure, and be still, ::
 And say, "Not as I will, but as my God wills."

6. When fiery temptations come near to thy heart,
 Turn ever to Jesus, He healeth thy smart.
 :: Endure and be still, ::
 In silence and suff'ring God shows thee His will.

7. When Satan hurls at thee his arrows of fire,
 The strong shield of faith thou must quickly acquire.
 :: Endure, and be still, ::
 In silence and suff'ring God shows thee His will.