

105. FAITHFUL UNTIL DEATH REMAIN!

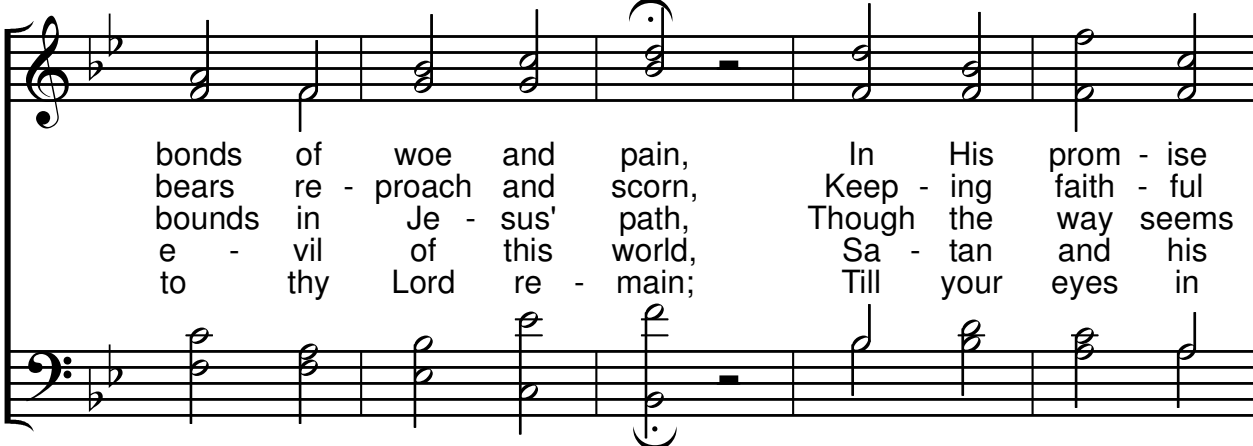

99, 104, 120, 253.

1. Faith - ful un - til death re - main! For the
 2. There no crown shall e'er a - dorn Him who
 3. If this treas - ure you a - wait, In the 4. Have you vowed to serve the Lord, 'Neath His 5. Thus our du - ty is made plain, Trust - ing crown of life be striv - ing. Break through wav - ers in the bat - tle. He who con - flict grow not wea - ry. Peace a - ban - ner ev - er fight - ing? Flee the and in God a - bid - ing. Faith - ful bonds of woe and pain, In His prom - ise bears re - proach and scorn, Keep - ing faith - ful bounds in Je - sus' path, Though the way seems e - vil of this world, Sa - tan and his to thy Lord re - main; Till your eyes in e'er con - fid - ing, Which through grace is in the strug - gle, Shall re - ceive the oft - en drear - y, We must toil through pow - er smit - ing; Till the vic - tor light be - hold - ing, See pre - pared there kept in store For thee when thy jour - ney's crown so bright, Glo - rious as the sun's own sweat and pain, If the prom - ised prize we'd there shall be, Wav - ing palms of vic - to - for the blest Shin - ing crowns of right - eous - o'er, For thee when thy jour - ney's o'er. light, Glo - rious as the sun's own light.

 gain, If the prom - ised prize we'd gain. ry, Wav - ing palms of vic - to - ry.
 ness, Shin - ing crowns of right - eous - ness.