

75. GIVE THANKS UNTO THE FATHER

220, 221, 227.

1. God of un - lim - it - ed com - pas - sion,
 2. For Thy most won - der - ful re - demp - tion,
 3. For Thy most ho - ly, truth - ful Spir - it
 4. For sol - ace in Thy prom - ise giv - en

Thou nev - er - end - ing fount of our love!
 For the a - tone - ment of our wrong,
 By which our spir - it's life our is shown,
 That Thy rich grace will nev - er end;

With count - less hosts in meek sub - mis - sion
 For Thy most gra - cious in - vi - ta - tion
 For light and pow - er we in - her - it
 When moun - tains fall and rocks are riv - en

We praise Thee now, O Lord a - bove,
 And for Thy Word with prom - ise strong.
 As Thy al - might and y Thy work is known,
 Thy cov - 'nant and Thy truth shall stand.

For grace and pa - tience Thou hast shown
 Yea, for the com - fort of Thy Word
 For the as - sur - ance there we find
 Tho' earth and heav - en sink and fall,

Ere this cre - at - ed world was known.
 Our hearts bring thanks to Thee, O Lord.
 Brings praise our new - born heart and mind.
 Yet God shall be, faith - ful to all.

5. Yea, lips and heart shall ever praise Thee,
 Yet heart and lips shall ever plead:
 Let not my faith grow weak or waver,
 But build me on this ground indeed;
 On Thy support I will depend
 In faith to stand until life's end.
6. Let me in love live pure and holy
 And keep me without spot or stain;
 Grant that my heart be meek and lowly,
 And may no idle joy or pain
 E'er sever me from Thy great love,
 Until I find Thy rest above.
7. No death nor sorrow, fear nor suff'ring,
 All that this world and hell include,
 Shall ever part me from my Saviour
 Nor from His love and brotherhood.
 I trust the God of Faith and truth
 With saints above my heart to soothe.
