

18. JESUS, THE TRUEST FRIEND

47, 49, 72.

1. Who is He that cares and watch - es
 2. Ere Thy light shone in with bright - ness,
 3. Mor - tals love their friends sin - cere - ly;
 4. We can feel Thy grace and com - fort,

O'er our life and soul's es - tate?
 Did'st Thou see and us in our woe.
 Hu - man love is thus con - fined.
 Light and strength, the Spir - it's seal;

Who is He that thus has drawn - us?
 Thou did'st die to give sal - va - tion
 In His death, He of loved us dear - ly,
 All the blight of sin and sor - row,

Christ a - lone, His love is great.
 To the lost ones here be - low.
 Friends and en - e - mies com - bined.
 None but Thee our wounds can heal.

5. Heav'nly blessings for the pilgrim
Here on earth are kept in store.
After sorrows, we Thy children
Shall rejoice forevermore.
6. Saviour! Since Thy blood is healing,
There is rest for heart and mind.
Let us now, Thy peace enjoying,
Grace, sufficient, in Thee find.
7. Teach us all Thy true obedience;
Teach us, Lord, to do Thy will.
Lead us in Thy holy presence;
Through this world do guide us still.
8. Though Thou lead us thru the darkness,
Thou art evermore our light.
When death comes in awful stillness,
We behold Thy face so bright.
9. Thus we love Thee, and adore Thee,
Thou art worthy of our love.
When in death and pain and sorrows,
Let us trust in Thee above.
10. Though the world our souls is calling
From the Lord, who loves us best,
May our love to Him be constant
Till we meet there with the blest.
