

253. MY LIFETIME DOTH PASS AWAY

99, 104, 119, 120.

1. My life - time doth pass a - way; Hour - ly
 2. Live thou as thy wish will be To have
 3. But a pure and lov - ing heart, Con - science
 4. And when in thy last dis - tress, Help - less to the grave I has - ten, And I know each lived when thou ex - pir - est. Treas - ures which have free from con - dem - na - tion Can re - pose and friends a - round thee gath - er, Then this heart of fleet - ing day My al - lot - ted span will come to thee, Fame and wealth which thou de - peace im - part, And in death give con - so - right - eous - ness Yields thee com - fort from the les - sen. Think, man, death comes soon or late.

 sir - est, Will not make thy death more sweet,
 la - tion. All who are re - newed in heart
 Fa - ther. Judg - ment brings no fear nor fright,

Tar - ry not, it will not wait!
 For they are joy - ful - ness thy de - part.
 Can with joy - ful - ness thy de - part.
 For the Lord is thy de - light.

5. Wouldst thou such a heart attain?
 Fear the Lord, His good word keeping!
 For the time thou shalt remain
 Here on earth is in God's keeping.
 Thus thy death thou wilt not fear,
 But in welcome hold it dear.

6. Learn by faith to overcome, Saying, "My Redeemer liveth.
 With these eyes I'll see Him come
 When eternal life He giveth."
 "It is finished," He did call,
 Triumphed over death and all.

7. Draw in spirit near the grave;
 Watch thy body slowly sinking.
 Pray: "O Lord, that I am clay,
 Let my thoughts be daily thinking.
 Teach me, Father, ev'ry day;
 Make me true and wise, I pray."
