

88. OUR PILGRIM WAY

1. Be our jour - ney and our way
 2. Of this we are con - fi - dent
 3. He that wa - ter for His own
 4. He who in His ten - der care

Of temp - ta - tions full; Be our earth - ly
 And we hold it fast, That the Lord, though Out of rocks it did bring, And the food for Holds the world and all, And with - out whose pil - grim - age But an hum - bling school, heav - ens rend, Keeps us to the last.

 proph - et lone Sent on rav - en's wing;
 will no hair From our head may fall;

Yet we are of joy - ful - mind,
 Though our strength so oft in - deed
 He who with few is fish and bread
 To whom great is not too great,

Trust - ing not there - on What our - selves we Threat - ens to take on wing, We keep faith, there Mul - ti - tudes did feed, Has He not, when Small is not too small, Could He real - ly do or find, But that Christ is strong.

is no need, We still have our King.
all is said, Help in ev - 'ry need?
come too late, Or not heed our call?

5. He that opened heavens, hath
Out of such great love,
For us plainly marked the path
To the realms above;
He who keeps that home prepared,
Would He e'er allow Those for whom He surely cared
All to perish now?

6. Nay, that shall not be our lot,
God is ever kind;
Keeps His promise, breaks it not,
Comforts heart and mind.
Though you may see trouble nigh -- Pilgrim, do not fear,
Look in faith to God on high
For your help is near!
