

155. PARTING HYMN

83, 154.

1. Why should ye all be weep - ing And break my
 2. As though to part for - ev - er We press each 3. We say: "I here, you yon - der; You go and 4. Then let us cease from weep - ing And mod - er - 5. Then not to part - ing's sor - rows We ded - i - ver - y heart? We're in the Sav - iour's oth - er's hands; And yet no pow'r can I re - main," And yet are not a - ate our woe, For we are in Christ's cate this hour, But to re - new our keep - ing And shall not there - fore part. No sev - er Our love's e - ter - nal bands. We sun - der, But links of one great chain. In keep - ing With whom we al - ways go. Thus un - ion With Christ, our rock and tow'r. If time nor place can sev - er ed The bonds which look quite brok - en heart - ed And sob our tones un - der in deep His af - fec - tion, "Our ways part faith in Him pro - tec - tion, We're led part - ing Though part - ing us last have bound; In Christ a - bide for - last here," we fare - well, And yet can - not be His sure say, And go in one di - gives us pain, And It can - not dis - u - ev - er, Who once in Him were found. part - ed, For we in Je - sus dwell. rec - tion And in the self - same way. rec - tion To the same Fa - ther land. nite us For we in Him re - main.