

127. PROVE YE EVERY SPIRIT

1. Prove ye, prove ye ev'-ry spir - it, As the Mas - ter
 2. Thus their right - eous-ness be - hold - ing, All in out - ward
 3. Though the wolves be ev - er rag - ing, Thou Thy fold art did com - mand it; Know their works, not words a - lone, Men, as form un - fold - ing, In - ward - ly they will ap - pear Hos - tile still de - fend - ing. When such spir - its do as - sail, We, who trees, by fruits are known. Are their fruits, their works and to Thy chil - dren here. He who lives in true o - know Thee, will pre - vail. Lord, do Thou dis - pel con - teach - ing Based on doc - trines Christ was preach - ing? Do they be - dience Can dis - cern the voice and pres - ence Of such fu - sion, Err - ing ones free from de - lu - sion. Sav - iour, love and teach the truth? Will their wis - dom God ap - prove?

 stran - gers which draw near; May we flee when they ap - pear.
 may Thy fold in - crease, Grant us com - fort, joy and peace!