5. No, to work our own salvation,
For this reason we are here;
Not to study wicked fashion,
But to shun all evil here.
:: For this old world and gold
Will once vanish, we are told. ::

9. Brethren, O, what bliss we're sharing
When true love inspires our lives;
With the weak one gladly bearing,
Love here for perfection strives;
:: Fervently Glad we'll be
Now and in eternity. ::

6. Oh, if we are ever ready
To serve Jesus day by day,
Sacrifice our soul and body,
Bear each burden by the way,
:: We shall fear, Nothing here,
For the Lord is always near. ::

10. Where the true love is forsaken,
There is death and emptiness;
There forgotten is the Saviour;
Life is then filled with distress.
:: Then we stray, From the way,
Stumbling on from day to day. ::

7. Oh, my brethren, then surrender
To your Saviour, give your all;
Dearly love His every member,
Keep a childlike heart withal.
:: Love in peace; never cease;
This your Lord will greatly please. ::

11. Let us then be up and doing;
Satan would our work undo,
And, the glow of love subduing,
Quench our joy in Jesus too,
:: That we may Not each day
Live to honor God away. ::

8. Love should grow anew each morning,
Love itself in works should show,
Should each member be adorning,
Christ in us where'er we go!
:: Then, well so! Love's pure glow
Gives to faith the power to do. ::

12. They who love the Saviour dearly,
And not for vain pleasures seek,
Glad for that which He provideth;
Will be happy, blest and meek.
:: And their peace Ne'er shall cease;
Heaven will their joy increase. ::
