

196. SUBMISSION

96, 167.

1. Nay, I will not sor - row! Who knows if to -
 2. Nay, I will not mur - mur, But in faith grow
 3. Nay, I'll not be choos - ing, Lest, His help re - 4. In my God con - fid - ing, And in faith a - mor - row Light will shine for me? He who firm - er, Though His help de - lays; When my fus - ing, I should be de - ceived; My im - bid - ing, Hope shall cheer my heart; Though the safe - ly guide - eth, All good things pro - vid - eth, heart is long - ing, When my tears come throng - ing, per - fect vi - sion, Sees but the be - gin - ning, storms be blow - ing, God His love is show - ing;

Ne'er will part from me. If in - deed His He'll not hide His face. Im - pa - tience Be - Not the end a - chieved. My own choice Would Love heals ev - 'ry smart. Ev - 'ry weight Love hand shall lead, Though on dark way He should comes of - fence; Tests and tri - als are our ne'er suf - fice; Though He hides His plans un - will a - bate; May I but in trib - u - car - ry, Should I doubt or wor - ry?

train - ing; Let us cease com - plain - ing.
shak - en, God is ne'er mis - tak - en. la - tion Win His ap - pro - ba - tion.

5. Do I seem forsaken? Is my spirit shaken, Knowing not God's will? Yet in all affliction I'll accept correction In submission still.
He'll provide what's good and right;
All my earthly tribulation Serves to my salvation.

6. Oft through bitter conflict, Yet to peaceful concord Leads my pilgrim way; He who fought so glorious,
Over death victorious, He will near me stay;
Thou, O Lord, O'ercam'st the world,
So we'll conquer in believing,
Victory achieving.