

115. THE ARMOR OF GOD

114, 118.

1. Put on the ar - mor of the Lord and
 2. When days of trib - u - la - tion are ap -
 3. The shield of faith be - thine in ev - 'ry
 4. So pray ye now, and nev - er cease your Sav - iour. The en - e - my with art - ful pear - ing, Call on the Lord; His grace will con - flict, And from this pre - cious treas - ure pray - ing Un - to the Lord, and in your guile is nigh. The hearts of men are oft de - strength - en thee. Though pow'rs of dark - ness round thee nev - er part. Though fier - y darts a - round thee prayer en - dure; For, broth - er, now there can be ceived by Sa - tan; In God's own strength we here are rag - ing, God's ar - mor shall your here are fall - ing, The shield of faith shall no de - lay - ing! Well for him who in ev - er must re - ly. Not on - ly flesh and strength and ref - uge be. Your loins be gird - ed quench each fier - y dart. The Spir - it's sword and Je - sus stands se - cure! Al - though a thou - sand blood are we sub - du - ing, But e - vil with God's truth and vir - tue, And may the hel - met of sal - va - tion Shall shield thee ar - rows fall a - round you, Your en - e - spir - its with their hosts pur - su - ing.

 Spir - it's light shine bright - ly o'er you.
 in each trial and trib - u - la - tion.
 my shall nev - er - more con - found you.

5. You know the way which Christ has marked so clearly,
 The way of self-denial that He trod;
 O love Him more and evermore sincerely
 Who bore the cross for us, the Son of God!
 O hear Him from the seat of mercy pleading With us, His sheep, who need His tender leading!
6. I am the Way, the Truth, and Life eternal.
 Whoe'er believes in me shall never die.
 Accept the Word which God has kindly given,
 The Word of Truth with grace to sanctify.
 The Word, as balm, for wounded hearts has healing,
 And thus in Thee new life and light revealing.