

111. THE CALL FOR LABORERS

1. A - wake, Thou soul's first in spi -
 2. Is thus the pi - ous flame ex -
 3. O, that Thy fire of were bright - ly 4. The prom - ise of true pas - tors ra - tion; Let watch - men stand be - fore the tin - guished, The flame of faith di - vine and burn - ing, And all with faith and love might giv - en; Hearts like Thine own do Thou in tem - ple door! With con - stant zeal and fer - vent in love? Who'll call the souls un - be in in - spired! If all this world were them in still. Thy ho - ly Word was firm de - vo - tion, A - gainst the to the Mas - ter, And - lead them for Thee yearn - ing, For in Thy nev - er brok - en; We know that en - e - my cross they do im - plore. Their to the sal - va - tion Lord is ac - bove? Where Thou this prom - ise wilt ful - quired! O, The

peal - ing calls through - out the world re - sound; Sal - is the Spir - it's wit - ness in this day? De - Lord, Thou King, and Sav - iour, hear our plea And en - e - mies be - fore Thy hand shall fall; Thou va - tion, Lord, in Thee a - lone is found. ny - ing our self, the Lord we should bey. grant our wish and speak, "So shall be!"

 art for - ev - er King and Lord of all.