

91. THE HEAVENLY MIND

92.

1. Heav - en - ward, e'er heav - en - ward
 2. Heav - en - ward di - rect thy soul
 3. Heav - en - ward the Lord would have
 4. Heav - en - ward thy ref - uge take

Let us wend our way! What the right - eous
 Ev - 'ry morn a - new! Swift our pil - grim -
 Thee to set Thy aim; Be not anx - ious;
 When op - pressed with care, For thy God will seek is there Found with - out de - lay,

 age doth roll; This, O man, is true!
 do not crave Earth - ly wealth or fame.
 ne'er for - sake Nor leave in de - spair.

But not on earth. Joy here al - ter -
 O plead and pray: God, who called me
 From such ab - stain! On - ly what with Why this dis - tress? In the realms of nates with woe; Lift on high from earth be - by His grace, Deep in - to my heart im - hand and heart For the Lord is set a - light a - bove There is joy and peace and low Thy heart and mind!

 press Thy truth each day.
 part Thy bring thee gain.
 love; This hope pos - sess!

5. Heavenward walk by Thy side
 All the Lord's elect,
 And with heav'nly foretaste do
 What their Lord directs.
 O join the throng!
 Strive with zeal while here below;
 Walk life's way through pain and woe;
 In God be strong!

6. Heavenward through all contempt
 Our dear Saviour trod;
 Follow Him, where'er He went,
 As a child of God.
 Hold fast to Him!
 Silently thy burden bear;
 Change thy murm'ring into prayer;
 The vict'ry win!

7. Heavenward His hand doth guide
 Through the desert waste;
 Draws thee closer to His side,
 Makes thy spirit chaste.
 He will destroy
 Every earthly vanity,
 And will lead thee finally
 Into His joy.

8. Hallelujah! Heavenward,
 Let thy thanks ascend;
 Thou shalt also join thy Lord
 At the journey's end.
 Then thou shalt be
 Where all pain is turned aside,
 There to praise Him, glorified Eternally.

9. "Hallelujah," thou wilt sing
 When thy Lord shall come,
 Joyfully His own to bring
 To His heav'nly home.
 Great is the Lord!
 For the cross He took a throne,
 Made His victory thine own!
 Praised be the Lord!