

164. THE IMAGE OF CHRIST

123, 124, 248, 230.

1. O, Sav-iour, might I thus as Thee, Like-mind-ed,
 2. My du-ty in Thy life I see; My light and
 3. How firm in God didst Thou con-fide, That He with
 4. A-lone out on the moun-tain's height, When round Thee pure, and hum-ble be! With Thee, O Lord, I'll mir-ror shalt Thou be. Our like-ness, Lord, is Thee would e'er a-bide. Do share Thy grace that drew the shades of night, Thy pray'rs a-rose to walk a-right, A child and serv-ant in Thy light!

 far from Thine. Thy form and im-age is di-vine!
 I might be In bonds of faith thus bound to Thee!
 God a-lone Such zeal my heart does wish to own!

5. Thy helping hand and loving heart
 To sick and lost didst Thou impart;
 And constantly for all didst care;
 Thy virtues, Lord, to me do share!

6. Rebuke of man didst Thou endure,
 Thus as a lamb so meek and pure;
 But Thou couldst glorify the name
 Of God with earnest zeal and fame.

7. Thy fearless zeal wilt Thou impart;
 With courage do inflame my heart!
 Discreetly let me walk with Thee;
 Let all my motives holy be.

8. Thy servants who have gone before
 With Thee their cross and sorrows bore.
 On Zion's mount the ransomed band
 Rejoicing by the throne they stand.

9. O, Saviour, help, and lead the way
 To heaven's gates, this child, I pray.
 When sorrows no more burden me,
 I'll praise Thee in eternity!
