

85. THE LORD'S PRAYER

50, 154, 178.

1. Dear Fa - ther, now be - hold us Ap -
 2. Hal - lowed be Thy dear name, Lord, Of
 3. May, Lord, Thy king - dom en - ter Each 4. Thy will and Thy com - mand - ments Be proach Thy throne of grace, To pray in all Thy chil - dren host, Whom Thou hast true and faith - ful heart, Which doth in done of us on earth That each may

our Lord Je - sus, We seek Thy lov - ing taught in Thy word What here is need - ful truth and can - dor Seek for the bet - ter learn with pa - tience Their val - ue and true face. Be - stow on us, Thy chil - dren, Thy most. Thy name in all the ran - somed In part. Lord, we, Thy chil - dren, call Thee, With worth. For - ev - er there in heav - en, Thy bless - ings man - i - fold, Thy love, Thy grace, and truth be sanc - ti - fied. Pre - pare us on life's heart and soul im - plore, That Thou Thy king - dom's man - dates for - ward go; May we with Thy grace

mer - cy, As Thou hast done of old.
jour - ney With Thee there to re - side.
glo - ry For - ev - er wilt re - store.
giv - en Do like - wise here be - low.

5. Our daily bread, Lord, give us
For body, soul, and mind,
Thy words of life so precious,
So pure and so refined.
We pray Thee for Thy favor,
Our Lord on heaven's throne;
Thy bread of heaven's flavor
Can please our hearts alone.
6. Forgive us our transgressions,
Where we, O Lord, have not
In words, in deeds, or patience Done as Thy word has taught.
They are unworthy servants
Who do no more at best
Than what laws and commandments
Require of them, then rest.
7. Let us, Thy children, mindful,
Obey Thy words with cheer;
Let none of us be idle,
Nor indolent while here.
And as Thou, Lord, hast mercy,
Where we not right have done,
So are we ever ready,
Forgiving everyone.
8. When Satan gives oppression
And night and darkness fall,
Give courage and discretion
To conquer over all;
And when in tribulations,
Grant us new strength and power;
And with Christ's inspiration,
Prepare us for the hour.
9. The glory and the kingdom
Forever Thine shall be,
Almighty King and Sov'reign,
In all eternity!
Put to extermination
Those pow'rs of wicked life.
O, may for all creation
Redemption soon arrive.
10. And now in termination,
Amen, so shall it be.
Our prayers and supplications
Shall bring response from Thee.
Thou art the true and faithful,
The God of Covenant!
In Thee our heart is joyful,
Our God of Hosts so grand.