

30. THE SEVEN CHURCHES

28, 29, 32, 186.

1. Hark! and earnestly be heeding What the Spirit thee doth
 2. He, who seven stars is holding In His right hand thus does
 3. Blest is he who overcometh, And the first true love maintain 4. Thus speaks Jesus, the Beginning, And the Last, the Alpha and teach; How the Word, its truth revealing All the churches speak: "Clear - ly all things I'm behold - ing, And my serv - ants' tains, Who in truth builds firm foundation, And false teach - ing O, Who from death, as Prince is reigning, Did arise; He doth beseech. Hark! for God to him is speaking Who for deeds I seek, What they do, their works comparing, And where doth disdain. Him with fruit I'll ever nourish From the speaketh so: "I know all your tribulations; Power - knowledge pure is seeking. He discerns each hidden al - so they are erring; I judge all things here a - tree which there doth flourish, Which above in patience ty, strength, works, temptations. Thou art rich; in thing right, And to light our thoughts doth bring. dise Is - ing them in - to the light!

 bear All pre - pared by God the all - wise." All re - proach; do not de - spair!