5. Let those who were dearly purchased
 Not become the slaves of man,
 For since Thou hast died to save us,
 Keep us pure, as is Thy plan.
 Clean and spotless, true and perfect,
 After Thy resemblance fair,
 There is grace for all partakers
 Of Thy fulness, sweet and rare.

6. Lord, into Thy death include us
 Let with Thee be crucified
 All that meets Thy disapproval;
 Lead us into Paradise!
 Come then, Lord, and do not tarry;
 Let us never slothful be!
 We shall sing with great rejoicing
 When we gain our liberty.
